

33 Facilitating Ethical Team Discussions

1-day programme

The ability to facilitate honest, reflective conversations about ethics is one of the most valuable and underused leadership skills. This programme develops it in a practical, accessible way.

What you'll learn

- How to create the conditions for honest ethical discussion in a team
- Facilitation techniques for exploring difficult cases and dilemmas
- How to manage disagreement and strong emotions in ethical conversations
- Building team norms and shared standards through reflective dialogue

Who is it for

Leaders, managers, ethics officers, and HR professionals who want to facilitate meaningful ethical conversations in their teams.

Duration

1-day programme

Outcomes

Participants leave with a practical facilitation toolkit and the confidence to lead reflective ethical conversations that strengthen team culture and shared responsibility.