

28 Leadership Accountability and Responsibility

1-day programme

Accountability starts at the top. This programme helps leaders develop the habits and mindset that make genuine accountability a defining feature of their leadership.

What you'll learn

- What genuine accountability looks like in practice - and what it is not
- How to take ownership of decisions and their consequences with honesty
- Communicating openly about mistakes, setbacks, and lessons learned
- Creating a culture where accountability is expected and modelled from the top

Who is it for

Senior leaders, executives, and board members who want to strengthen their personal accountability and model it for their organisations.

Duration

1-day programme

Outcomes

Leaders leave with a clearer sense of what genuine accountability requires of them and practical strategies for modelling and embedding it in their organisations.
