

23 Respectful Workplace and Professional Bounda

1-day programme

A respectful workplace does not happen by accident - it is built through clear expectations, consistent leadership, and the courage to address behaviour that falls short.

What you'll learn

- What constitutes harassment, bullying, and disrespectful behaviour in the workplace
- How to set and maintain clear professional boundaries
- The manager's role in modelling and enforcing respectful behaviour
- How to respond when boundaries are crossed - for managers and individuals

Who is it for

All staff, with specific modules for managers and HR professionals responsible for maintaining a respectful working environment.

Duration

1-day programme

Outcomes

Participants leave with a clear understanding of professional boundaries and practical strategies for maintaining a respectful, dignified workplace.